The exhibitor list has been released for the inaugural edition of The Salon, a new Paris art fair co-produced by the New Art Dealers Alliance (NADA) and non-profit art collective The Community.

The invitational fair will take place from 17 to 20 October 2024, and will be held at 76 Boulevard de Magenta in the 10th arrondissement of Paris. Built on a platform originated by The Community, The Salon will intermingle a group of international players from the worlds of contemporary art, music, fashion and publishing. Exhibitors and participants will occupy all five floors of the historic building, creating an atmosphere that encourages intimate interactions between smaller groups than would be typical in a larger exhibition hall.

Representing 18 countries and 24 cities, the list of exhibitors will include Mitchell Innes & Nash, New York; Carbon 12, Dubai; Current Plans, Hong Kong; Bradley Ertaskiran, Montreal; Brigitte Mulholland, Paris; and Berthold Pott, Cologne, among scores of others. The full exhibitor list is available online.
